

Attribution Release

For participants who consent to named attribution of specific quotes or insights

Document Reference	Definition
Document code	TC-GIAG-ATTR-v1.0
Version	1.0 — March 2026
Issued by	Michael Bragen, Principal, ThinkCapital LLC
Contact	research@thinkcapital.org thinkcapital.org/research-integrity
Applies to	ThinkCapital Government IT/AI Governance (GIAG) Initiative — Streams 1 & 2

Attribution Release

Purpose

This document is required only for participants who choose the ‘Attributed’ option in their Research Participation Agreement (Document 1). It is separate from the main consent form to ensure that attribution is an explicit, deliberate choice and not bundled with general participation consent.

Signing this release grants ThinkCapital LLC permission to associate your name, title, and organization with the specific quote(s) listed below in published research findings, presentations, and related communications. It does not affect the terms of your Research Participation Agreement.

Important

ThinkCapital will send you the specific proposed quote(s) and their proposed context for review before any publication. You will have 14 days to review, request changes, or withdraw attribution consent for any specific quote. Your general research participation will not be affected by any decision about a specific quote.

Participant Information

Full name
Title / Role
Organization
Email (for pre-publication review)

Scope of Attribution

Attribution consent under this release is:

Scope element	Detail
Limited to	The specific quote(s) reviewed and approved by the participant prior to publication
Subject to	Participant review of final proposed attribution before each publication
Revocable	Attribution consent for any specific quote may be withdrawn up to the point of publication
Not transferable	This release applies only to ThinkCapital LLC publications and communications; it does not authorize third-party reuse of attributed quotes

Attribution Format

Unless you specify otherwise, attributed quotes will appear in one of the following standard formats:

- “[Quote text]” – [First name, Last name], [Title], [Organization]
- “[Quote text]” – [First name, Last name], [Organization] (title withheld at participant request)

If you would prefer a different attribution format, please specify below:

Preferred attribution format (if different from standard):

Pre-Publication Review

Before any attributed quote is published, ThinkCapital will email you the following:

1. The exact proposed quote text as it will appear.
2. The document, page, or section in which it will appear.
3. The proposed attribution line.
4. A deadline of 14 calendar days to respond with approval, changes, or withdrawal.

Non-response within 14 days will be treated as approval unless you have previously indicated a different preference in writing to research@thinkcapital.org.

Consent and Signature

By signing below, I grant ThinkCapital LLC permission to attribute specific quotes from my GIAG research interview to my name, title, and organization, subject to my pre-publication review and the terms described in this document.

Participant Name (print) _____

Title / Role _____

Organization _____

Signature _____

Date _____

Acknowledged by ThinkCapital LLC

Michael Bragen, Principal _____

Signature Michael Bragen _____

Date March 6, 2026 _____

This release supplements but does not replace the Research Participation Agreement (TC-GIAG-CONSENT-v1.0). Both documents should be retained by both parties.